

Our very first photographic competition!

Past and present clients and volunteers are invited to share their magical experiences with us. Enter your favourite White Shark Projects photograph and you could be a winner.

Perhaps you caught the definitive white shark shot. Or maybe it was the faces of friends or family that captured the moment for you... Let our panel of established adventure photographers choose the winning pics. They'll be looking not only for a high photographic quality, but also for subject matter, composition, and the story told.

Simply use the online entry form to submit your winning entry or email it to photo@whitesharkprojects.co.za including your contact details.

Prizes

First prize: A fully sponsored placement on the White Shark Projects wonderful 21-day volunteer programme

Second and third place winners will each receive a copy of our White Shark Projects coffee-table book.

Your photograph could help shark conservation

We're going to compile a coffee-table book of the best photographs, giving all photographers due credit. We'll sell these books at our Lodge, and donate the profits to the South African Shark Conservancy. So if your photograph is chosen, you'll be making a contribution to shark conservation!
